Sept. 9 in Concord YMCA Senior Center

New Hampshire Collectors' Club will host the Fall meeting of N. H. Numismatic Association on Sunday, Sept. 9, at 2 P.M. in the YMCA Senior Center, 20 South Main St., Concord. There will be an auction and everyone is invited to bring exhibits. Suitable awards are given to exhibitors.

Satchel dealers are welcome with a card table or two available for each. We plan to have refreshments. Bring along prospective members. Important business is selection of host for annual show next Spring. Hopfully Nashua Coin Club will be available to repeat the fine job of 1979.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I would like this opportunity to thank Nashua Coin Club President Bob Decoteau and all members of the host club for the outstanding job they did in organizing and running the 17th Annual N.H.N.A. Coin Show. During the course of the show I spoke with several dealers and visitors and they agreed that the event was very well handled and in an excellent location. Fred McPhail reported that the auction was well attended and bidding was spirited, with high grade silver dollars a favorite.

Folks, an event does not just happen. Numerous meetings, a few migraines, and many volunteer work hours over a period of a year were responsible for making this show a success for all. With this in mind I am pleased to announce that the Nashua Coin Club has voted to host our 18th show next Spring. With the experience of this year under their belt, I'm sure next year will be our best yet.

One of my goals has been to increase membership and I can use your help. Ask your collector friends if they belong to N.H.N.A. If not, get their name, address and $1 a year regular or 50¢ junior dues to our treasurer, Ken Young, 26 Stevens St., Nashua, N. H. 03064. Thanks to Jim Guiness of Derry Stamp and Coin for giving me a space to sign up members at his 1st Sunday Show at Portsmouth, N.H. Holiday Inn. (Continued on next page)

NASHUA COIN CLUB HOSTS OUTSTANDING NENA SHOW

Congratulations to Robert DeCoteau, President of the host Nashua Coin Club and Chairman of the 17th Annual N. H. Numismatic Assn. Coin Show, and all his excellent Committee who put on one of our most successful shows Apr. 28 and 29, 1979 at Rivier College Auditorium.

The spacious well lighted hall was an excellent setting and the host club went all out to make it a pleasant event for both the dealers and customers. Treasurer Kenton Young reported a total profit of $546.76 which was split as agreed - 75% to the Nashua club and 25% to the N.H.N.A.

Jim Rolston, Greenland was elected to another term as president. Ken Young agreed to carry on as treasurer with Sunny Dame to take over if it became impossible for him to continue. Fred McPhail moved up to First Vice President and Paul Hojlo, who did a fine job as bourse chairman at the show, is second vice president. Mrs. Arthur Murdough continues as historian and Kenton Young as Librarian. Wayne Rich continues as corresponding secretary and editor of the Nonagon. He will also handle advertising in the Nonagon as Grovenor Nudd is in Florida most of the year.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE CONTINUED

The Cagin 4th Sunday Stamp and Coin Show at the Nashua Holiday Inn has also been most helpful.

New Program Planned

Second Vice President Paul Hojlo and your president are exploring the idea of an auction page in the Nonagon where members could consign material at a very minimum commission. If you have any comments on auction rules or the idea of the auction itself please send them to me. Thanks.
